Using My page

The My page function in METEOR is available to metadata developers and registrars only. My page provides metadata developers and registrars a personalised page within METEOR and allows access to information related to their own use of METEOR.

Within My page, users have access to the following topics from the left navigation menu:

- My workgroups
- My profile

My workgroups

My workgroups lists all the workgroups to which a user has access to. By selecting the name of the workgroup from the left navigation menu, users can enter the workgroup and start viewing, editing or creating items, depending on their access permissions.

My profile

My profile provides users with information on their login name and their registered email address.

Users can change their name, email address, login name and password at any time by clicking the Edit profile link on the My profile page.
