Collection and usage attributes

Guide for use: In Victoria, transitional housing managers (THM's) are also covered by this definition.

The definition of CSHA community housing providers incorporates providers who manage the following:

- properties leased from the private rental sector, government or nongovernment agencies for the provision of community housing (head leasing) provided the tenancy management function is undertaken by a community organisation;
- properties purchased using state and territory housing/community housing authority CSHA community housing program funds but managed by community housing providers; and
- joint ventures where the purpose of the arrangement is to provide housing which falls into the scope of community housing (for example, when assistance is funded by the CSHA and the Building Better Cities Program or the Social Housing Subsidy Program).

CSHA community housing providers may include:

- · Community housing cooperatives;
- Community housing associations;
- · Local governments;
- · Aboriginal housing organisations;
- · Aboriginal housing cooperatives;
- · Local Aboriginal land councils; and
- Church and other not for profit welfare groups.

Collection methods: CSHA community housing survey and administrative collections.

Comments: CSHA community housing providers are defined by the organisations' tenancy management and tenure arrangements and not necessarily defined by who owns the property.
