Administrative Attributes

Source Document: Standards for statistics on the Family. ABS Cat. No. 1286.0 ABS: Directory of concepts and standards for social, labour and demographic statistics, 1995

Source Organisation: Australian Bureau of Statistics replace with data elements "living arrangements" and "relationship in household"

Comments: The ABS classification is essentially a four-level hierarchical structure which allows input at the most detailed level, and which can be output at various levels of aggregation. Because this data element is not often collected in community services data collections, only the top level category has been included here. Where such details are required it is recommended that they be collected in accordance with standard practice recommended by ABS as set out in this data element (see source documents).
