Main job of registered midwife cluster

Identifying and definitional attributes

Metadata item type: Data Set Specification

METEOR identifier: 384011

Registration status: Health, Standard 10/12/2009

DSS type: Data Element Cluster

Scope: The main job of registered midwives who were employed in the profession during the reference week.

The main job is defined as the post or position, funded by an organisation, in which the health professional worked the most hours during the reference week in Australia. The health professional may be an employee or they may be self-employed with the organisation.

Collection and usage attributes

Statistical unit: The statistical unit for this data set is the Registered midwife.

A Registered midwife refers to a person who is currently registered, or who has been registered, with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency as a midwife at any time during the reference period.

Guide for use: Data elements in this cluster assist in describing the type and distribution of services of registered midwives in their main job. This cluster forms part of the Registered midwifery labour force DSS, along with Second job of registered midwife cluster, Work setting hours cluster, and a range of other data elements.

Data elements in this cluster are collected from all midwives employed in the profession. Data elements in the Second job of registered midwife cluster are collected only from those health professionals employed in more than one job in the profession. All other workforce data elements in the Registered midwifery labour force DSS are collected from all health professionals registered in the profession and relate to all jobs held in the profession.

Registered health professionals on leave at the time of registration are asked to report based on the job that is usually their main job.

The main job:

- includes time spent travelling to home visits or calls out;
- excludes other time travelling between work locations; and
- excludes unpaid professional and/or voluntary activities.
