

Human functions

Alterations to body structure or function (impairment), activity limitations and restrictions on participation.