

Population

Contextual information about the characteristics of the population.

Examples include health insurance enrolment, % population over 65 years of age, % residing in urban centres.