

Health system

Contextual information about the configuration, organisation, sustainability of utilization of the health care system.

Examples include number of coronary artery bypass graft (CABG) per capita, number of home care services provided per capita.