

Common name

A multi-word designation assigned to an indicator within the National Health Care Agreement. A short or common name or designation by which the indicator is known and might be identified.