

Computation description

The plain text description of the formulae used to calculate an indicator.