

Data custodian

A person that ensures that data holdings are properly documents, maintained, controlled and accessed.