

Human function

Alterations to body structure or function (impairment), activity limitations and restrictions in participation.