

Human Function

Alterations to body structure or function (impairment), activities (activity limitation) and participation (restrictions in participation).