

Medical graduate trainee

Identifying and definitional attributes

Metadata item type: Object Class

METEOR identifier: 542883

Registration status:

- Health, Retired 31/10/2017

Definition: A person who has graduated from a university medical course, completed their compulsory postgraduate years, gained a qualification to practice as a medical officer in Australia, and is commencing or undertaking vocational or postgraduate medical training.

Specialisation of: Person/group of persons

Collection and usage attributes

Guide for use: Medical graduate trainees may be employed by an establishment while undertaking clinical/professional education and training requirements for an accredited course.

Medical graduate trainees include:

- Any person undertaking medical vocational training in a recognised medical speciality training program accredited by the Australian Medical Council. These trainees are also known as registrars.
- Registrars in hospitals or health services undertaking medical vocational training in non-accredited training positions.
- Any person undertaking training for a certificate or diploma qualification from a specialist medical college accredited by the Australian Medical Council.

Source and reference attributes

Submitting organisation: Independent Hospital Pricing Authority

Relational attributes

Data Element Concepts implementing this Object Class: Medical graduate trainee—medical specialty type

- Health, Retired 31/10/2017
- Independent Hospital Pricing Authority, Superseded 17/08/2015