

Medical postgraduate and vocational trainee

Identifying and definitional attributes

Metadata item type:	Object Class
METEOR identifier:	585802
Registration status:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Independent Hospital Pricing Authority, Standard 17/08/2015
Definition:	A person who has graduated from a university medical course, completed their compulsory postgraduate years, gained a qualification to practice as a medical officer in Australia, and is commencing or undertaking vocational or postgraduate medical training.
Specialisation of:	Person/group of persons

Collection and usage attributes

Guide for use:	Medical postgraduate and vocational trainees may be employed by an establishment while undertaking clinical/professional education and training requirements for an accredited course. Medical postgraduate and vocational trainees include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Any person undertaking medical vocational training in a recognised medical speciality training program accredited by the Australian Medical Council. These trainees are also known as registrars.• Registrars in hospitals or health services undertaking medical vocational training in non-accredited training positions.• Any person undertaking training for a certificate or diploma qualification from a specialist medical college accredited by the Australian Medical Council.
-----------------------	--

Source and reference attributes

Submitting organisation:	Independent Hospital Pricing Authority
---------------------------------	--

Relational attributes

Data Element Concepts implementing this Object Class:	Medical postgraduate and vocational trainee—medical specialty type <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Independent Hospital Pricing Authority, Retired 27/11/2017
--	--