

Core biopsy

Identifying and definitional attributes

Metadata item type:	Glossary Item
Synonymous names:	Biopsy core
METEOR identifier:	598214
Registration status:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health, Standard 14/05/2015

Definition: A section of tissue that has been removed in a way that preserves the histological architecture of the tissue's cells. A core biopsy procedure may be used to remove a section of tissue directly from an individual, or biopsy cores may be taken from a larger section of tissue that has been surgically removed from an individual.

Core biopsies are most commonly performed as a diagnostic test for cancerous conditions.

Source and reference attributes

Submitting organisation: Cancer Australia

Relational attributes

Metadata items which use this glossary item:	Biopsy core number <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health, Standard 14/05/2015 Person with cancer—biopsy core, number N[NN] <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health, Standard 14/05/2015 Person with cancer—core biopsy length <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health, Standard 14/05/2015 Person with cancer—core biopsy length, total millimetres NN.N <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health, Standard 14/05/2015 Person with cancer—core biopsy tumour extent, percentage N[NNN] <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health, Standard 14/05/2015 Person with cancer—core biopsy tumour length, total millimetres NN.N <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health, Standard 14/05/2015 Person with cancer—positive biopsy core, number N[NN] <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health, Standard 14/05/2015 Prostate cancer (clinical) NBPDS <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health, Standard 14/05/2015
---	---