

Stroke unit care

Identifying and definitional attributes

Metadata item type: Outcome Area

METEOR identifier: 627667

Registration status:

- Health, Qualified 04/04/2017

Description: A patient with stroke is offered treatment in a stroke unit as defined in the Acute stroke services framework.

Relational attributes

Indicator sets linked to this outcome area: Clinical care standard indicators: acute strokeHealth, Recorded 14/03/2017

Indicators linked to this outcome area: Acute stroke clinical care standard indicators: 3a-Proportion of patients with a final diagnosis of acute stroke who have documented treatment in a stroke unit Health, Recorded 14/03/2017

Acute stroke clinical care standard indicators: 3b-Proportion of stroke patients spending at least 90% of their acute hospital stay in a stroke unitHealth, Recorded 14/03/2017

Source and reference attributes

Submitting organisation: Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care

Reference documents: ACSQHC (Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care) 2015. Acute stroke clinical care standard. Sydney: ACSQHC

NSF (National Stroke Foundation) 2015. Acute stroke services framework. Melbourne: NSF.