Urban Centre and Locality

Identifying and definitional attributes

Metadata item type:	Glossary Item
Synonymous names:	UCL
METEOR identifier:	695681
Registration status:	Health , Standard 06/09/2018 Housing assistance , Standard 10/05/2019 Aged Care , Standard 30/06/2023 Indigenous , Standard 07/04/2024
Definition:	An area of concentrated urban development with a population of 200 people or more.

Collection and usage attributes

Comments:	The Urban Centres and Localities (UCLs) are designed for the analysis of statistical data, in particular data from the Census of Population and Housing. The 200 minimum population size is set to enable users to access cross classified Census data for these areas without the resulting counts becoming too small for use.
