

AIFS Working Together to Care for Kids: A survey of foster and relative/kinship carers 2016

Identifying and definitional attributes

Item type: Data Source

Description: Australian Institute of Family Studies (AIFS) was commissioned and funded by the Department of Social Services (DSS) to conduct the survey Working Together to Care for Kids: A Survey of Foster and Relative/Kinship Carers.

This national survey involved telephone interviews with 2,203 foster and relative/kinship carers in late 2016 and was aimed at providing a better understanding of the characteristics and needs of the carers of children who are living in out-of-home care in Australia.

Link to data source: <https://aifs.gov.au/publications/working-together-care-kids>

Collection and usage attributes

Implementation end date: 01/12/2016

Source and reference attributes

Data custodian: Australian Institute of Family Studies