Collection and usage attributes

Guide for use:	Registration is granted and managed by teacher regulatory authorities in each state and territory. It provides a person with a 'statutory licence' to perform the duties of a school teacher as defined in the particular jurisdiction. The Australian state and territory teacher regulatory authorities are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Australian Capital Territory - Teacher Quality Institute• New South Wales - NSW Education Standards Authority• Northern Territory - Teacher Registration Board of the Northern Territory• Queensland - Queensland College of Teachers• South Australia - Teachers Registration Board of South Australia• Tasmania - Teachers Registration Board of Tasmania• Victoria - Victorian Institute of Teaching• Western Australia - Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia There are currently four forms of teacher registration: provisional registration, full registration, permission to teach and limited registration. The definition of these forms of registration differs slightly for each state and territory teacher regulatory authority. Usually, a teacher is initially granted provisional registration. This indicates that they meet the Graduate career stage of the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers. Full registration is achieved when a teacher has met the Proficient career stage of the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers and all other requirements for teacher registration. To be granted full registration teachers are required to demonstrate that: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• their teaching meets the Proficient career stage of the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers• they have fulfilled the minimum requirement for professional practice in an Australian or New Zealand school setting• they continue to meet the elements of suitability for registration• they have met any additional conditions which might apply to their provisional registration.
