Guide for use: Providers can report up to two codes if needed.

CODE 40 Work and life experience

To be used for students/applicants who did not recently leave secondary education and were not admitted on the basis of prior VET or higher education study. This may include students admitted on the basis of professional qualifications, mature age provisions or other work and like experience.

CODE 41 Recent secondary education – ATAR only

To be used where the student/applicant recently left secondary education and was admitted/selected solely on the basis of ATAR, Queensland overall position (OP) or International Baccalaureate aggregate score, regardless of whether this includes the consideration of adjustment factors such as equity or subject bonus points.

CODE 42 Recent secondary education – ATAR plus other criteria

To be used where the student/applicant recently left secondary education and was admitted/selected on the basis of ATAR, Queensland overall position (OP) or International Baccalaureate aggregate score, and some other criteria such as a portfolio, audition, extra test, early offer conditional on minimum ATAR, etc.

CODE 43 Recent secondary education was undertaken – only other criteria, ATAR not considered

To be used where the student/applicant recently left secondary education and neither ATAR nor Queensland overall position (OP) were a factor in the admission/selection and only other criteria were considered. For example, overseas assigned ranking or score, special consideration, portfolio alone, audition alone, school recommendation scheme with no minimum ATAR requirement.
